

CHAPTER 30
PARTHI SAI

A photographer came to click a picture of this Advent. He asked Sathya to remove a crude stone in front of Him -

This stone will spoil the picture.

Sathya did not pay heed to the request. The photographer clicked anyway. When the photograph was developed, Shirdi Sai Baba's idol could be seen instead of the crude stone.

The time to leave had come. Sathya got up from the rock and prepared to leave. People got confused -

Seeing her dear Raju leave, Easwaramma panicked and stopped Him saying -

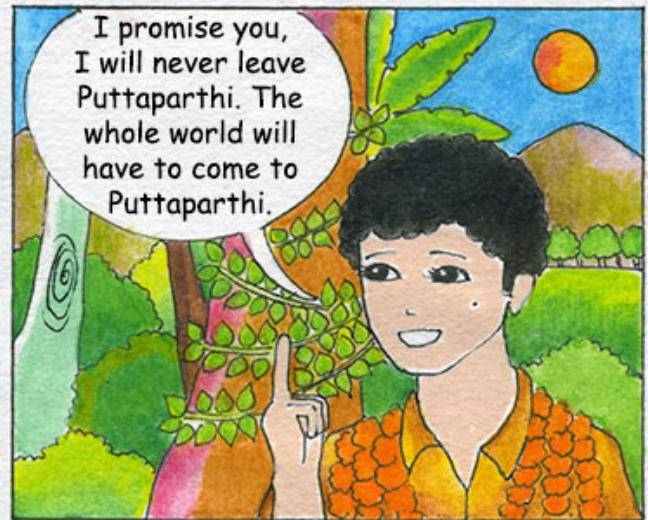

I may not be Your mother but, You are my Son. Don't go!

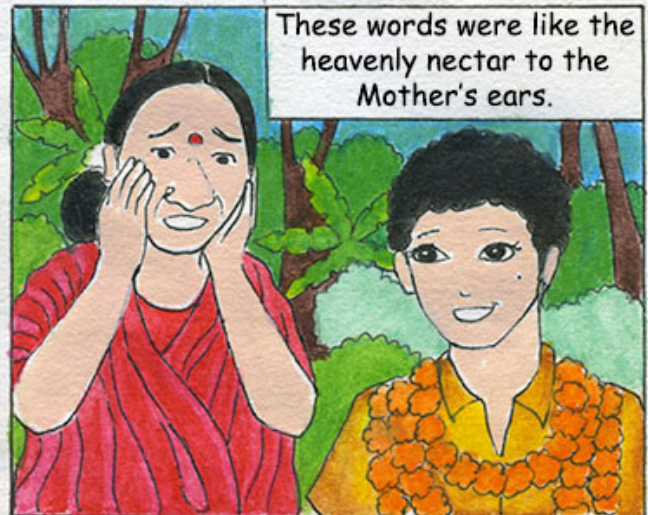

Hearing these words from His mother's mouth, Sathya made a remarkable promise to her.

I promise you, I will never leave Puttaparthi. The whole world will have to come to Puttaparthi.

These words were like the heavenly nectar to the Mother's ears.

To others it was a shock-

Raju, You can't go!

Raju, we can't live without You.

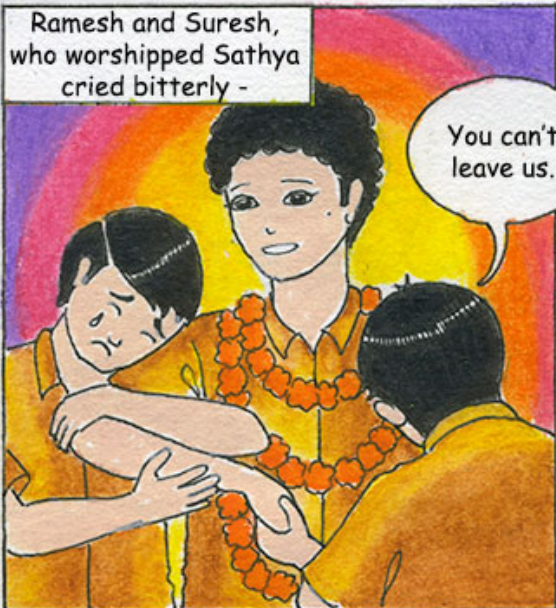

Raju, have mercy. Don't leave.

Ramesh and Suresh, who worshipped Sathya cried bitterly -

You can't leave us.

But Sathya had to go. Ramesh ended his life by jumping in a well. Suresh lost his mental stability.

Urvakonda watched, in grief, its dearest Boy leave.

This is not the end of His-story. It is only the beginning of the million stories of transformation and realisation that followed.
May His life and His message always be in our hearts so that one day we may truly live as Embodiments of Divine Love.

